Jill wakes up to get ready for school. Jill looks in her closet and pulls out her school jacket. Jill tries to put the jacket on. "My jacket is too small!" Jill shouts. Her brother Ben says, "You can wear mine." Jill smiles and says, "I have the best brother." At school, her class goes outside to play. Jill is glad she has a warm coat. Her friend Kate does not have a coat. Kate looks cold. "Here, Kate, we can share my big coat," Jill says. Kate smiles and says, "I have the best friend."
